

DIVISION I - Horticulture

GENERAL RULES AND INFORMATION

1. The Greater Atlanta Rose Society Rose Show will take place at the Atlanta Botanical Garden, 1345 Piedmont Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, on Saturday, May 12, and Sunday, May 13, 2018. All entries must be made between 6:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m., Saturday, May 12. Judging will begin at 10:00 a.m. Entries may not be removed before 5:00 p.m., Sunday, May 13.
2. This show will be governed by the standard rules, regulations, and guidelines of the American Rose Society (ARS). Roses are to be exhibited by the recognized ARS exhibition name (AEN). Classification and eligibility will be determined in accordance with Modern Roses XII, the 2018 Official List of Approved Exhibition Names for Exhibitors & Judges, the 2018 edition of the Handbook for Selecting Roses, Modern Roses on-line, and Recent Registrations on the ARS website. In cases where a variety is not listed in any of the above official ARS publications, the Combined Rose List (CRL) may be used as a reference (Note: a rose name with double quotation marks is not eligible to be shown except in Class 45, EarthKind Roses). In the event there is a conflict regarding name, class, color, or other pertinent information between the CRL and the official ARS publications, the latest ARS publication will prevail.
3. Competition is open to all rose growers. All entries must have been grown in a private outdoor garden by the exhibitor and be correctly named and classified. Exhibitor numbers will be used and must appear on all entry tags. Only one person or team may enter from any one garden. Judges judging in the horticulture section of this show are invited to exhibit in Class 53 and 54.
4. The Show Committee will furnish containers and entry tags, except where specifically indicated otherwise. An entry tag must be made for each specimen except collections shown in one container, which shall have one entry tag with all varieties listed on the tag. Both top and bottom of tag must be completely filled out. Styrofoam wedges are permitted and will be supplied by the Show Committee, or exhibitors may furnish their own.
5. Exhibitors may make as many entries as desired in each section except for Classes 1-10, and as may be noted in other classes, provided each entry is a different variety. Two specimens of the same variety in the same class entered by the same exhibitor will result in the automatic disqualification of both entries.
6. Placement will be made by the Placement Committee except for Classes 1 through 10. In those sections only, the exhibitor may place entries while accompanied by a member of the Placement Committee. Once placed, the entry shall not be moved and the exhibitor must promptly exit the show area after placing his/her entry. No one will be permitted in the show area during judging except individuals authorized by the Show Committee.
7. Except where otherwise specifically stated, varieties will be arranged alphabetically within a class, disregarding color class.
8. Blue, red, yellow, and white ribbons may be awarded in each variety class. Only blue ribbon winners may receive awards. Judges may withhold any award they feel is not merited. The decision of the judges is final.
9. Climbing Hybrid Teas, Grandifloras, Floribundas, Old Garden Roses, Miniatures and Minifloras must be exhibited in the appropriate section for their bush-type counterparts.
10. The judge evaluates each specimen in accordance with the following point system:

Form	25
Color	20
Substance	15
Stem and Foliage	20
Balance and Proportion	10
Size	10
	100
11. Specimens will be disqualified for the following reasons:
 - a. Misnamed, misclassified, misplaced, unlabeled or mislabeled. This includes the appearance of an exhibitor's name in any location other than the designated places on entry tag.
 - b. Stem-on-stem (a rose exhibited with a portion of the previous stem growth attached). Exceptions: Species, OGRs, and Shrubs may be shown stem-on-stem.

- c. Presence of foreign substance applied to improve the appearance of a specimen.
 - d. Side growth left on a specimen that must be shown disbudded.
 - e. A specimen in violation of ARS or local show rules.
 - f. A rose entered with a name that has not been recognized by the American Rose Society. Roses are to be exhibited with the recognized ARS exhibition name (AEN).
12. One-bloom-per-stem Hybrid Teas and Grandifloras must be exhibited without side buds and at exhibition stage, which is usually one-half to three-fourths open. Multiple bloom Hybrid Teas, Grandifloras and other types shown as sprays must have two or more blooms in all stages or the same stage of development, according to the variety. "Naturally grown" exhibits need not be disbudded. Stem length and foliage should bear a pleasing relation to size of bloom or spray.
13. Neither the Greater Atlanta Rose Society nor the Atlanta Botanical Garden assumes any responsibility for loss or damage to persons or property in relation to this show.

CHARACTERISTICS OF DESIGNS

Traditional Line – Line is dominant and must show movement in one direction. There is height and width, but little depth, except in focal area. The use of plant materials is restrained.

Traditional Line-Mass – Line is plainly visible. Must have depth as well as height and width with more roses and foliage than a traditional line but is still light and airy. Shows gradation of color and size.

Traditional Mass arrangement is characterized by large amounts of plant material in a full but not crowded design. Colors and forms are grouped for visual balance and rhythm. There is a well-developed focal area and gradation of color and size.

Modern Abstract Designs are purely compositions of space, texture, color and form and are not constructed around a central focal area. They may have several emergence points for plant material. Plant materials can be altered, manipulated, and/or distorted and placed in a non-conventional manner. Abstraction is dominant and these designs must have two or more abstract qualities. The rose bloom(s) should never be abstracted by distorting.

Modern Horizontal Line Designs The dominant thrust is horizontal. Asymmetrical balance is usually evident for a strong horizontal line. Design may have a strong focal area that must be subordinate to the horizontal line.

Modern Transparency Designs are designs in which depth is emphasized by some components seen through others. A lattice or netting or natural or manufactured material may be used.

Modern Underwater – A focal area of the design is placed underwater in a clear or transparent container to magnify and create interest. Approximately one-third of the design should be under water.

In the Oriental Manner –Low Container – This style creates the impression that one is looking into a garden of natural growth, beautiful volume, and is a three-dimensional design. Plant materials are arranged in a low container or in a compote with water showing. A needlepoint (kenzan) is placed off-center and need not be covered with anything other than water. The design is based on the asymmetrical, three-dimensional triangle that symbolizes the universe. There are three main lines: the tallest (heaven) establishes the dimension of height [approximately 1½ times the diameter of the container plus its depth], the next tallest (man) gives width [$\frac{2}{3}$ the first stem], and the shortest (earth) gives depth [$\frac{1}{3}$ the first stem]. Fillers or assistant stems (ashirai) should be shorter than the stem they are supporting. There is simplicity in construction and restraint in the use of plant material. One-half to two-thirds of the bottom of the container is free of plant material. Water is showing and is an integral part of the design. Foliage does not touch the water surface or rest on the lip of the container.

In the Oriental Manner – Tall Container – This style stresses space and the natural growth of plant materials. This asymmetrical three-dimensional design uses a tall container or compote. Lines may cross but water does not show. Only in the tall container style are materials permitted to rest on the rim of the container. The first main stem (shin) in a tall container style design should be one and one-half times the height of the container – other stem measurements are the same as in the shallow container style. Lines must be clean and definite. Supporting stems are used sparingly to avoid clutter.

Exhibition Table is a totally non-practical artistic display of elements suggestive of serving a meal. Other components are elective. These tables may be displayed before a background, in a niche, against a wall, or on a segment of a table. Dishes may be stacked, suspended, placed on easels, etc. Napkins or other appointments may be grouped or presented in creative ways.
